

Dr John J Norcini, Ph.D.
President & CEO
Foundation for Advancement of International Medical Education and Research, USA

Biography:

John J. Norcini, PhD has been the President and CEO of the Foundation for Advancement of International Medical Education and Research (FAIMER®) since its inception. FAIMER is a non-profit committed to improving world health and it has an active research program in international health professions education, physician migration, and the contributions of international medical graduates to the US healthcare system.

Prior to FAIMER, Dr. Norcini held a number of senior positions at the American Board of Internal Medicine. He has more than 200 publications, lectured and taught in more than 45 countries, and is on the editorial boards of several peer-reviewed journals in health professions education. He is an honorary Fellow of the Royal College of General Practitioners (UK) and the Academy of Medical Educators (UK). He has received numerous awards including the Karolinska Prize for Research in Medical Education.