

Dr Muhamad Saiful Bahri Yusoff
Head
Department of Medical Education
School of Medical Sciences
Universiti Sains Malaysia, Malaysia

Biography:

Muhamad Saiful Bahri Yusoff, MD, MMed, PhD, is a senior lecturer in School of Medical Sciences at Universiti Sains Malaysia, the Head Department of Medical Education and the Chairperson of Examination Office. His research interests are medical education, student wellbeing, psychometrics, stress management, psychological health and burnout. He is the Founder and Editor-in-Chief of Education in Medicine Journal and underwent a one-year medical education editorial training from Association for Studies in Medical Education (ASME). He is also the founder of the DEAL-Based Practice to build resilience and minimize burnout among medical students. The DEAL-Based Practice received the Reimagine Education Teaching Delivery 2016 Award (i.e., the global award for innovative higher education pedagogies) and Ronald Harden Innovation in Medical Education 2013 Award.