

- 1) “Teaching comes through the head, learning happens through the heart.” (Osho)
- 2) “The best teachers are those who show you where to look but don’t tell you what to see.” (Alexandra K. Trenfor)
- 3) “When we think about learning, we typically focus on getting information into students’ heads. What if, instead, we focus on getting information out of students’ heads?” (Pooja K. Agarwal)
- 4) “A teacher is only as effective as his ability to understand where his student is.” (Abraham Hicks)
- 5) “You don’t teach a subject. You teach a student.” (Deepa Bhushan)
- 6) “No one learns as much about a subject as one who is forced to teach it.” (Peter Drucker)

7)“I am more interested in arousing enthusiasm than in teaching the facts. The facts may change, but that enthusiasm for exploring the world will remain with them for the rest of their lives.” (Seymour Simon)

8)“Give the students something to do, not something to learn; and the doing is of such a nature as to demand thinking. Learning naturally results.” (John Dewey)

9)“You must question everything you learned because you should know that no matter what country you live in, you will often be taught stupid things!” (Mehmet Murat Ildan)
